given for this bill, it was to help these smaller companies. Now that's what this guy.... Then, if what Senator Brown is saying is true, then this guy, who was representing these various entities, the Chamber of Commerce of Omaha, these other chambers of commerce in Nebraska, and this outfit in Sarpy County, they ought to fire him because he said that five years is enough time for these big companies, but, for these smaller companies that are not the mega-corporations, five years is not enough time. That's what he said. The Revenue Committee has a Chairperson who is on the floor, and I'd like to ask him a question, Senator Wickersham, if he'll yield.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Wickersham, will you yield?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wickersham, I'm not going to ask you the name of the secret company. But when the hearing was going forth, was it your impression that there was a specific company in mind that triggered the bringing of this bill?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: On my recollection, I think we had one witness who came before the committee that certainly had been working with either a group or one company, however you want to characterize it, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you. The only reason I wanted that from Senator Wickersham is to make it clear on the record that I'm not making up the allegation that I've repeated over and over that a specific company was in mind, that specific company's desires were taken into consideration, and that's why the bill was brought. When these business groups get together they know the whole story, they just don't tell it to those who are going to carry water for them. And they have us on the floor of the Legislature talking about all these high-sounding principles and so forth, and all the companies are looking at is the profit. Poor Senator Schrock thinks that things are going to be better for agriculture in Nebraska if Caterpillar comes here. They'd come anyway, without this bill. Senator Schrock, I'd like to ask you a question, if I may,...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Schrock, would you respond?
